CANNON GIVEN 16 YEARS

NEGRO WHO RAVISHED A WHITE GIRL IN SEDALIA SEPTEMBER 26, 1907.

HE WITHDREW PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

Pleaded Guilty and Threw Himself Upon the Mercy of the Court—Brief Review of a Most Dastardly Crime.

The Lloyd Cannon negro rape case, wherein Miss Sophia Schwensen, a white domestic, was the prosecuting witness, which has been hanging fire in the criminal court since Monday, was abruptly terminated shortly after Judge Hoffman convened court this morning, when the prisoner, through his leading counsel, C. C. Kelly, withdrew his plea of not guilty to the charge of rape and entered a plea of guilty.

Mr. Kelly pleaded for leniency at the hands of the court, and after a brief consultation with the state's attorneys Judge Hoffman sentenced the prisoner to sixteen years' confinement in the state penitentiary.

Under guard of Sheriff I. N. Sprecher and Deputy M. T. Henderson, Cannon was taken to the state prison at Jefferson City on the noon train today, where he began the serving of his sentence.

Surprise at Guilty Plea.

The court room was filled early today with eager spectators who had assembled out of curiosity to hear the evidence, and the prisoner's action in pleading guilty caused no little comment.

The selection of the jury to hear the case was begun last Monday, but the trial proper was not entered upon until yesterday afternoon, when the prosecuting witness was placed on the stand.

Shortly after 4 o'clock last afternoon the defense's counsel objected to the admission of certain testimony purporting to show at what time the prosecuting witness had revealed the fact of her assault.

Both sides argued the point until 5 o'clock, when Judge Hoffman adjourned court until this morning. No witness was placed on the stand today, the attorneys being earnestly engaged in private conversation until Mr. Kelly announced the intention of the prisoner.

Employed at Same House.
Cannon is a negro about 27 years old and had been employed in doing chores at the home of Font Meriwether on West Seventh street, at which place Miss Schwensen also was employed.

On the morning of September 26, 1907, according to the allegations in the information filed against Cannon, while members of the Meriwether family were absent from home, Miss Schwensen was attacked by Cannon, who, after accomplishing his fiendish desires, threatened to kill the young woman if she ever divulged his deed to anyone.

On October 14, 1907, less than three weeks after the first assault had been committed, Cannon made a second assault on Miss Schwensen with the intention of ravishing her, but her screams attracted the attention of carpenters who were at work on the Meriwether residence, and when they hurried to her assistance the negro coolly and deliberately walked away.

Fled From Scene of Crime.
He left Sedalia that night, and Prosecuting Attorney Dow issued a state warrant charging the negro with assault with intent to rape.

For several months Cannon's whereabouts remained a mystery to the authorities of this county, but on February 10, 1908, Sheriff Sprecher arrested Cannon, who was then working on a farm ten miles northeast of Paola, Kas.

Cannon was brought to Sedalia and several continuances were granted the prisoner before the preliminary examination was finally held. When the original hearing was held in Judge R. J. Leaming's court Mr. Kelly refused to take any part in the examination.

However, one startling fact was revealed at the hearing, when Miss Schwensen, who labored under the theory that the negro would kill her, informed the court that Cannon had previously assaulted her and accomplished his purpose. This fact had heretofore been unknown to the authorities.

Several Continuances Granted.
After Cannon's preliminary arraignment had been concluded he lay in the county jail for months, awaiting trial in criminal court. Several continuances were also granted in this court, but finally the case was called last Monday.

Prosecutor Dow was assisted by James T. Montgomery, who acted as leading counsel, and W. D. Steele, while Mr. Kelly, leading counsel for the defense, was assisted by P. D. Hastain and W. W. Blain.

The selection of the jury required one and one-half days' task, and at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the case proper was begun. Only one witness,

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS

By Rev. Kokendoffer at First Christian Church.

The revival meeting in progress at the First Christian church, conducted by home talent, as it were, is growing in interest.

Last night Rev. Kokendoffer had a splendid audience, considering the weather, and tonight he expects a much larger crowd.

He speaks this evening from the text, "No Man Saw Jesus Only."

Mrs. E. B. Quisenberry, who is the soloist, sang "Moment by Moment," her rich contralto voice pleasing all who heard her sing during the meeting.

DO YOU SCRATCH TICKET

AS JESUS CHRIST WANTS YOU TO WHEN YOU ENTER THE VOTING BOOTH?

NOT FIND CHRIST IN DANCE HALL

Rev. La Mance, Railroad Evangelist, Preached a Strong Sermon at Epworth M. E. Church Last Evening.

Evangelist LaMance used for his text at the Epworth M. E. church last night John 12:21: "Sirs, we would see Jesus." He began by giving a beautiful description of Bethany and the feast which occasioned the visit of the Greeks. He said, in part:

"If you are not seeking Jesus you are pursuing shadows. It is the business of the preacher to show people that they are really seeking Jesus. I am not a believer in total depravity. No matter what walk of life we are in, Jesus will meet us half way and give us a blessing.

"Do people see Jesus in the home life? If some one should get under conviction in your neighborhood would they come to you as the representative of Jesus? One reason that many children are not led to Christ today is that parents professing to be Christians have not lived right in their home life.

"What is your social life? Is that pure? And your political life? When you are shut up in the booth and take the pencil to mark your ticket, do you mark it as Jesus Christ wants you to? Then what of your commercial life? If you love God in deed and in truth it will reflect in your business life. This world is hungry to see the people in the church demonstrate Jesus Christ.

"You will not find Jesus in the lustful, corrupt dance hall. The people there are not expecting any testimonies or any solace about Jesus. Such things would not be welcome there. Neither is he found in the cheap shows or the damnable nickelodeons.

"When you see Jesus you will want to be like Him. You will want to appropriate Him and assimilate His character. The sight of Jesus will humble you. If you are proud and puffed up, a glimpse of Him will straighten you out.

"I have seen people who profess to have great experiences that they never put into practice. They have never seen Jesus. Jesus, like the famed Aeolian harp, can play the softest, sweetest, most enchanting music that will wean you from the world and you will see Jesus in everything."

On Wednesday night of next week will be a special service for laboring men. There will be special music and the discourse will be one of great interest to organized labor.

DESERTED FAMILY IS HERE

Arrived From Spokane, Washington, This Morning.

Emmett Petty, accompanied by Mrs. Grant Butcher and four children and Mr. Butcher's mother and his sister, arrived from Spokane, Wash., this morning. Mr. Petty came to Sedalia, but the Butchers stopped off at Lamonte.

The family returned to Missouri owing to the disappearance of Mr. Butcher, who is alleged to have deserted his family for a married woman formerly of this city, as chronicled in the Democrat-Sentinel Sun day.

Mr. Petty stated to the Democrat-Sentinel this afternoon that Butcher left his family something like $4,000, and to his daughter, Minnie, a piece of property at Sunnyside, Wash., worth $1,200.

On November 24 Mr. Petty received a letter from Butcher, mailed on a train, saying he would never return, but would be a "weary Willie" henceforth, as for the past two years his life had been simply hell on earth.

Mr. Petty has no idea where Butcher has gone, nor does he know definitely that there is another woman in the case.

A CALL TO BACKSLIDERS

WAS THE THEME OF EVANGELIST HAMILTON'S SERMON LAST NIGHT.

BROADWAY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Large Chorus Is a Great Help to the Meetings—Threatening Weather Did Not Keep People from Attending.

A large audience again greeted the evangelists at the Broadway Presbyterian church last night. Despite the threatening weather, a number of new voices joined the splendid chorus Mr. Henderson has organized. There is great enthusiasm over the music.

The audience showed their appreciation of the beautiful solo by Mr. Henderson entitled, "Let Him Have His Way With You."

The new song book, "Famous Hymns," is becoming very popular. Besides many of the older songs like

"Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" and the celebrated "Glorious Song," it has many beautiful new ones. "My Anchor Holds" and "It Cleanseth Me" have already become favorites.

Mr. Henderson drills the large chorus after the service each evening and invites all who will sing to join it.

The heart-searching sermon of Evangelist Hamilton last night upon "Backsliding" was a compliment to Monday night's discourse on "Can I Know That I Am Saved." His subject last night was "The Fall and Restoration of the Strongest Man in History." In part he said:

"Sampson lost favor with God by falling into sin. There are multitudes of men and women in this country who have had rich Christian experience, but they are now more like shorn giants. They were once on the mountain peaks of spiritual life and glory, but they are now in the valley of spiritual poverty.

"One of the saddest things I hear is 'I have seen better spiritual days than these.' It is the confession of a distressed soul. I may be speaking to some who have had the joy of leading others to Christ, but your own heart knows its bitterness.

"Some people lose their joy when they leave behind their church letters or keep them hidden in their trunks. No man can keep his joy and peace who refuses to take up his religious responsibilities when he moves to a new field."

The evangelist spoke of the possibility of one who has lost his joy and fellowship with Christ of getting it back again if he comes praying "Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation and uphold me with thy spirit." He said "You may have forgotten Christ, but He has not forgotten you. If you return there is a waiting Savior to receive you. Come back and I will lead you backsliders."

Tonight's subject will be, "The God of Wonders in Revivals." Mr. Henderson's solo will be "A Little Bit of Love." The cottage prayer meetings are increasing in attendance. The public is cordially invited to all the meetings.

WED BY THE REV. ATWILL

Bridal Couple Departed for Kansas City This Afternoon.

W. P. Kimberlin, of the Landmann Abstract and Title Co., and Miss Ethel Wells, of 409 North Grand avenue, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Douglass Atwill, pastor of Calvary Episcopal church, performing the ceremony.

One hour later the bridal couple left for Kansas City to spend their honeymoon. They will return here to make their home.

The original intention of the couple, as announced in the Democrat-Sentinel several weeks ago, was to be married at 8:30 o'clock tonight, but learning of the intention of friends to charivari them they decided to be married earlier and avoid such embarrassment. Nevertheless a crowd of young gentlemen friends assembled at the depot and showered the bridal couple with rice.

BEEN SILENT 30 YEARS

AND ALL BECAUSE OF HAVING BEEN JILTED BY GIRL HE LOVED.

MAN HAD VERY BAD CASE OF IT

Benjamin Landis, a Resident of Pennsylvania, Swears Off Talking, and for Thirty Years Has Kept His Pledge.

Middletown, Pa., Nov. 11.—For thirty years Benjamin Landis, who lives with his mother in a modest little home two miles outside of this town, has not conversed with friends or relatives, because, it is said, he was jilted by a girl whom he loved devotedly in his youth.

More than thirty years ago "Ben" Landis wooed Miss Fanny Gingerich, who was then the belle of the countryside, and who married Henry Snively. Landis was about 18 years old. He tried to forget there ever had lived such a girl as Fanny Gingerich, and he went west, hoping his affections might be lost in a mining camp or on a prairie ranch.

For several years he lived near Kansas City, but finally came east and returned to his home near Middletown. Love's flame had not died out, but he was a far different Landis than the one who went away a few years before. Relatives declared "he became queer while in the west," but neighbors and friends say "it was the girl."

Landis confessed that his love disappointment had disheartened him. It was this time he took the vow never again to hold conversation with anyone through the length of his life.

And he has lived up to this self-imposed sentence unflinchingly for thirty years. Now and then he mumbles a short sentence, but his mother, Mrs. Catharine Landis, a venerable woman 84 years old, with whom he has lived since he swore off talking, says he never speaks to her.

PEONAGE FOR 3,000 MEN

GOVERNMENT MAKES CHARGES AGAINST A FLORIDA LUMBER CONCERN.

THE CASE IS ON TRIAL IN NEW YORK

It Is Alleged That by Means of Alluring Advertisements Laborers Are Enticed and Held in Practical Slavery.

New York, Nov. 11.—What was asserted to be the practical marooning of 3,000 men in the wilds of Florida and their detention there at hard labor for several months was dealt with at length yesterday before Judge Hough and a jury in the United States circuit court.

The testimony was at the trial of the government's case against employers and agents of the Florida East Coast Railway company for alleged violation of the statute prohibiting "peonage, slavery and enforced servitude." The men under indictment are Francisco Sabba, Edward J. Triay, David E. Harley and Frank A. Hough.

After a jury had been selected Glenn E. Usted, deputy attorney general, outlined the prosecution's case. He contended that the treatment accorded the workmen supplied to the Florida East Coast company by the defendants was nothing short of slavery.

The government would show, he said, that in 1905 the men had been induced by alluring advertisements to apply for employment in the south. Through the long journey they were given nothing except stale bread and bologna sausage, he said, and when they reached the end of their land journey many refused to leave the train. A hose was turned on them and in this manner the entire consignment was driven aboard a waiting steamer, he said.

When the ultimate destination was reached, said Mr. Usted, the men found that the paradise that had been promised them was a barren wilderness, overrun with reptiles, with no place to sleep provided. Their "high wages," the prosecutor said, were of paper, exchangeable at the company's store. The escape that many sought was impossible, as the region was entirely cut off.

Thinking to be discharged, some refused to work. These, Mr. Usted said, were threatened with death and brutally beaten. Finally some were able to smuggle letters through to relatives, and in this manner the government had been apprised of the conditions existing, the lawyer said. An adjournment was taken until today.

SARDOU LAID TO REST

Funeral of French Dramatist Was Very Simple by His Wish.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Victorien Sardou, the French author and dramatist, who died November 8, was buried today. Although simple, the funeral was expressive evidence of the place that Sardou held in the hearts of the French people. He would have been gladly accorded a state funeral had it not been for his expressed wish that he be buried without pomp.

AN EASY ESCAPE.

The sentence given Lloyd Cannon was too light. Here was a negro man, almost a giant in stature, brutal, strong, bestial, who stood in open court and of his own free will confessed to having committed the most heinous crime known to the world, a capital crime, one punishable by death—and was given but sixteen years in the penitentiary.

The story of the girl whose life he has ruined irreparably was in evidence, with all its horrible and heartbreaking details told amid sobs and tears; other witnesses were ready and willing to add corroborative testimony to the recital; the court knew that another charge of similar character had been made against him, and that not one word had been or could be said in his defense; that he had fled from the scene of his infamy, thus from the first confessing, and then before all men he acknowledged with seeming indifference to being guilty of the "runnable crime"—and he received sixteen years in the penitentiary! Sixteen years, which, with time allowance, means twelve!

Twelve years of imprisonment for having robbed an innocent and simple maiden of the most priceless jewel in the crown of pure womanhood, twelve years for the ruthless blighting of a life which through all the years to come will be haunted day and night by the fiendish memory of that awful deed.

Twelve years! Fough!

BRYAN AND TAFT.

William Jennings Bryan can not attain the presidency. With a personal following and popularity exceeding that of Henry Clay and James G. Blaine he seems destined, like them, to be always in the White House atmosphere but never in possession. Like Cleveland, he was thrice a candidate, but as against Cleveland's two victories there remains for Bryan only a series of defeats.

It is idle to indulge in "ifs" in viewing the election results or to speculate on what might have happened had Governor Johnson, Judge Gray or some other democrat been the nominee. It is possible that the alignment of states might have been different, but it is probable that so far as the popular vote is concerned Bryan's total is larger than would have been recorded for any other democrat in the land.

There are six million people in America who love the Nebraska man with an enthusiasm and ardor that is inspiring, but there are not enough to make him president. It was his last, and greatest opportunity, but the presidency was not to be attained. It was a difficult task. A party well entrenched in power is hard to dislodge, and this is especially true when a reasonable degree of material prosperity exists. Furthermore, it is undoubtedly the fact that certain principles and policies which are supposed to be represented in the person of Roosevelt are popular, and that the voters had been brought to believe that Taft was the natural executor of an administration created by an enormous popular vote.

The Democrat-Sentinel is not disposed to find fault with the judgment of the majority, but it serves notice that this verdict was obtained upon the understanding that the republicans in authority should "do something"—that the tariff should be revised downward, and that other remedial legislation promised by Roosevelt should reach the stage of performance.

Yesterday we were democrats and republicans. Today we are all Americans. We all realize that Judge Taft is a clean and high minded man, whose aims and purposes are just. We realize further that no man in history has had a better, more thorough or more practical training for the presidential office. He is built into it, as it were. And, therefore, in acknowledgment of the will of the many, we face the future with serene confidence.

Anyhow, hats off to Bill!

NOW FOR TARIFF REVISION.

Now that a republican president and congress have been elected, what will be done with the tariff becomes an interesting subject for consideration. The republican platform pledges the president-elect to call an extra session of congress immediately after his inauguration the fourth of March, next, for the purpose of enacting a new tariff law. It may be taken for granted that Mr. Taft will issue the call at that time, inasmuch as there is no prospect that the approaching session of congress will bother itself about the matter. If there is one subject on earth which a republican senator or congressman has a loathing for when mentioned in connection with legislation it is the tariff. Therefore, it is certain the disagreeable matter will be put off as long as possible, and that nothing will be done until there is no avenue left for escape.

We have the advance information furnished already by Senator Aldrich that the tariff will not be taken up at the coming session of congress, and what the Rhode Island senator says usually goes in that body.

Senator Burrows says it may be, but Senator Burrows best likes to see himself quoted when he is talking through his hat. Of course, tariff revision could be entered upon by congress this winter, were it so disposed, and in view of the fact that this legislation has been deemed of such great importance as to call from the republican national convention a resolution asserting that it should be the subject of an extraordinary session, it would seem that the law makers should apply themselves to the task at the earliest moment. But now that the battle has been won, the urgency of a new tariff law appears to have diminished in reverse ratio with Candidate Taft's plurality.

So we shall in all probability see, as following presidential campaigns of the past, indifference as to law-making responsibilities when congress reassembles. The tariff will be as unpopular as ever, but after the short session has been wasted in doing nothing, and Mr. Taft has called the promised special session, we shall then have the pleasure of seeing the stand patters squirm.

What headway Taft and the revisionists will make against the Burrows-Fordney-Cannon-Payne-Dalzell crowd is the most entertaining feature of congressional politics to which the public looks forward.

AS TO ADVERTISING.

When buyers forget to forget; when competition ceases to compete; when every actual and prospective customer has been convinced that your product is the best of its kind and nothing better can be produced, then, and only then, says the Selling Magazine, will it be safe to get along without advertising.

Just as long as old buyers die and new ones take their places; just so long as there is competition to coax your customers from you; just so long as there is a possibility that somebody else will produce a better product, just so long will it be important, absolutely necessary to carry on the work of educating and reminding your own and your competitors' customers as to your goods. Is it not quite as necessary to do this work of educating and reminding in dull times, as when business is brisk? It takes time at any time to excite interest, and create desire; men are coming into your business field every day; there is always plenty of worth while material to work on. Where, then, is there any saving in a temporary discontinuance of a work which which must be done more and harder and at greater cost if once interrupted?

Senator Burrows says the tariff may be revised by the approaching session of congress. Now let's have what Senator Burrows thinks.

Probably Nat Goodwin has got so used to matrimonial failures that he doesn't mind how often they come.

HAD QUIT WORK
READY TO GIVE UP IN DESPAIR

Restored to Health By Vinol
"I was sick, run-down and finally had to give up work. After trying a number of remedies and several physicians, I was just about ready to give up in despair. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and it has done more good for me than all other means combined. It has built me up and restored my strength until I now feel twenty years younger, and am able to attend to my work again as usual." Job Jeavons, 1036 Lind street, Wheeling, W. Va.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains tonic iron and all of the strengthening blood-making and body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil. Vinol is unexcelled as a strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness—and is the best known remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis.

We return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction.

Mental Fatigue and Eye Strain

The unhappy owner of astigmatic eyes—one or both in greater or lesser degree of abnormal development, is in the position of having his most delicate nerve centers as much strained and his cerebral circulation as much distorted by half an hour's continuous exerting of attention and memory accompanied by reading, as will those of his healthy neighbor be by the work of a whole day. If your eyes are troubling you, consult my eye specialist. It will cost you nothing.

THERE IS GREAT REJOIC-ING TODAY.

Victor Emmanuel is the Only Son of
Humbert I., and Succeeded

Rome, Nov. 11.—Thirty-nine years
L., second king of United Italy.

Throughout the nation there was great rejoicing, and the spirit that was manifested then is being repeated today on the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of he who is now Victor Emmanuel III., Italy's beloved and wise ruler.

All day congratulatory messages poured in upon his majesty, and he was the recipient of many valuable and handsome gifts from all of the royal families of Europe.

Victor Emmanuel was the only son of Humbert I., and succeeded to the throne upon the tragic death of his royal father, who was assassinated by the Anarchist Bresci at Monza, July 29, 1900.

He married in 1896 Princess Helene, daughter of Nicholas, Prince of Montenegro, and has four children.

Prince Humbert, the heir apparent, was born September 15, 1904. The Duke of Abruzzi, who has been in the limelight of life, owing to his reported engagement to Miss Elkins, an American heiress, is a son of the late Prince Amadeus, who was an uncle of King Victor Emmanuel.

Robert Kenny Killed Father Near California, Mo., July 30.

California, Mo., Nov. 11.—Robert Kenny, whose trial has been on in the Monticau county circuit court this week, was convicted yesterday and sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary for killing his father, C. B. Kenny, July 30, at their home north of California.

Young Kenny was arrested four days after the killing and admitted the deed to Sheriff Hornbeck, but said his father quarreled with him and ordered him away from home and refused to let him have property that belonged to him.

Only a few witnesses were heard and the defense made a fight for a sentence as light as possible.

THE VERY BEST.

Have any of our readers seen a recent copy of the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer? If not, it will pay to send for a copy, if for no other purpose than to note its present great worth as an educator in all things that tend to make life prosperous, and home, the happiest place on earth.

The editor by asking its readers to criticize and suggest improvements; and following advice thus obtained is enabled to produce a paper that exactly fits needs of a family and a material aid to father, mother and children in reaching that higher level in social life, where content and comfort reigns supreme.

Father obtains ample information that guides in the where, when and how to regulate and increase the income from his efforts. The mother in management of household affairs, practical economy, government of children, and other duties that makes her toil a labor of love. Children's minds and hearts are freed from thoughts of questionable amusements and frivolities of life, and encouraged to emulate all that is helpful in planning for a useful future in life.

The Grand Idea being that; "As are our Homes, so will be the Community, State and Nation."

A most desirable help, is a non-sectarian sermon each week, as preached by that Biblical Student Pastor Chas. T. Russell; a forcible reminder of the spiritual and temporal rewards gained by righteous living as preferable to a Godless life that brings nought but misery to the home.

Other departments and features are above the ordinary, the unanimous verdict of its readers being: "The cleanest and best family Weekly known to them."

IMMEDIATE RELIEF

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats and Hoarseness, by Using Hyomel.

When you catch cold you want to get rid of it as quickly as you can. You don't want to lie around the house for a week swallowing nauseating drugs. You know when you do this that you are not only making your own life miserable, but are a nuisance to everyone about you.

Why not avoid all this? Why not relieve your cold in five minutes? Why not cure it over night? You can do it by using Hyomel, the sure and guaranteed cure for colds, coughs, sore throat, catarrh, bronchitis and asthma.

Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) is medicated and antiseptic air. You breathe it into the lungs through a small pocket inhaler, and its soothing influence as it passes over the inflamed membrane of the respiratory tract, stops the mucous discharge, allays the inflammation, and the cold is cured. A complete Hyomel outfit costs $1.00 and the W. E. Bard Drug Co. will refund your money if it fails to cure.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible, but I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease. In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Miss Schwensen, had been placed on the stand, and her testimony had not been concluded when Mr. Kelly entered a plea of guilty for his client.

A charge of assault with intent to rape, details of which were mentioned in the foregoing, and a charge of perjury are still pending against Cannon.

The latter charge was filed by Mrs. Meriwether, who accused Cannon of making a false affidavit, on which affidavit he secured a continuance when the case was called for trial at the last term of court.

Miss Schwensen is 20 years old and came to Sedalia from Cole Camp, years of age. At 17 she came to Sedalia and has been making this city her home, having been employed at several residences as a domestic.

Both at the preliminary examination and at the trial proper she became completely exhausted when she was asked to relate the minute details of the assaults, and only by the careful assistance of Mr. Montgomery was she able to tell of her terrible experience.

Miss Schwensen is a niece of Chas. Schwensen, one of Pettis county's most prosperous and influential farmers, who resides in the Mora neighborhood.

Wife Was at the Train.
Cannon's wife, accompanied by a score of negro men and women, was at the train to bid her husband goodbye, but expressed no signs of emotion as he boarded the train for his departure.

Mr. Kelly informed the Democrat-Sentinel this afternoon that ever since Cannon's arrest, his attorneys have endeavored to persuade him to plead guilty to the charge, but he steadfastly and continuously refused to do so.

At one time, Mr. Kelly said, Cannon could have been let off with a five-year sentence if he had agreed to plead guilty, but he refused to do so.

SOUR FOOD CAUSES IT

FEW KNOW THAT ALL STOMACH TROUBLE IS DUE TO FERMENTATION OF FOOD.

NO USE TO CONTINUE TO SUFFER

You Can Rid Yourself Now and Forever of This Dread Misery of Disordered Stomach—Everything You Eat Will Be Promptly Digested.

If your meals don't tempt you, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something for a sour stomach and indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, nauseous breath, and stomach trouble of all kind; putrefying the intestines and digestive canal, causing such misery as biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking one Triangule that fermentation and sour stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at your pharmacist any time you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapiesin will purify the sourest and most acid stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you could eat.

Japanese Comic Opera at Sedalia Theatre Thursday Night.

Herbert Sallinger, one of the comedians of the Stewart Opera company, which comes here on Thursday night to the Sedalia theatre in "The Geisha," is a much traveled individual. At one time he served in the British army in India and resigned his commission to create the role of "Ko-ko" in the first production of the "Mikado" given at Bombay. Later he traveled over Egypt, South Africa, the Australian continent and when the Boer war broke out, he was singing in Hong Kong; he volunteered for

HERBERT SALLINGER

In "Geisha," Sedalia Theatre Thursday active service and rushed to South Africa and was made a scout on "Bob's" staff.

At the siege of Johannesburg he did daring work by night in securing information regarding the position and forces of the Boers and by day visited the field hospital tent and cheered the wounded Tommy Atkins by singing coarser songs and snatches of the old Gilbert & Sullivan opera, "Flora's" and other bits dear to the heart of the Britisher far from home.

Mr. Sallinger has a bronze medal with D. S. O. on the bar, a fine commentary on what his country thought of the soldier actor's work in the day of her trial.

Peculiarly enough the comedian will make his Sedalia debut in the role he made famous in Africa.

The Flints at the Sedalia Theatre Next Week.

This coming week The Flints, the world's famous hypnotists, will be the great attraction that will be of much interest to everybody. Prof. Flint will deliver a short address each evening upon some phase of hypnotism which will be nicely illustrated. At an expense of both time and money, The Flints have gathered materials which has made their performances famous throughout the land. No source which could possibly furnish anything new or novel has been left untouched. Each country on the face of the globe which knows anything of hypnotism, has its latest discoveries represented in these entertainments. The entertainment is composed of an almost endless variety of things selected from the everyday walks of life. The drama opera and extravaganza have each furnished their best parts. Quaint characters from various professions and trades, many of whom show the most ludicrous instantaneous transformations in plain view

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 12.

There are just 1,450 fewer saloons in Ohio than there was January 1st, and the real battle of the state for extermination made possible by the recent county Option Law has not fairly begun. No wonder the "trade" is crying out for personal liberty.

THE DRYS.

"HATS OFF," SAYS PASTOR

Women Demur Until It Applies to "Elderly Ladies," Too.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Rev. Dr. E. Trumbull Lee, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Wilkinsburg, a fashionable Pittsburgh suburb, Sunday morning requested that all the ladies of his congregation remove their hats before he proceeded with service.

There was much grumbling and scores declined to make a move toward removing their hats until the minister said:

"The request, of course, does not apply to the elderly ladies, but I wish all the younger women to remove their hats."

Inside one minute every female in the church had her hat on her lap. None would chance being classed among the "elderly ladies."

LIE OUT OF WHOLE CLOTH

That to the Effect That the Mancheters Will Separate.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—The Duke and Duchess of Manchester are not in danger of either divorce or separation, according to Mrs. Calvin S. Smith, of 3982 Lake avenue, who has just returned to Chicago after spending several weeks with them in England. The persistent tales of conjugal infelicity in the ducal household, she says, are falsehoods.

Such a thing would never be thought of by any one at all well acquainted with the family life of the duke and duchess. They are perfectly happy and congenial. Their home life is ideal.

"The duchess has a beautiful character and the duke is everything that is charming and cultivated. There is no excuse for the printing of rumors that they are unhappy."

YACHTMEN AT NORFOLK

THOSE OF TIDEWATER CITIES TO MEET AT WILLOUGHBY SPIT PLACE.

HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET-ELECTION

It is Probable That the Cruise Next Year Will Be to the Head of Chesapeake Bay, Thence to Philadelphia.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 11.—Yachtsmen of the Tidewater cities will meet this evening at the Willoughby Spit club house for the annual banquet and election of the Hampton Roads Yacht club.

It is probable that a project for the next year's cruise will be inaugurated and the new committee named.

It is also probable that the cruise next year will be to the head of the Chesapeake bay, going through the Susquehanna river to Philadelphia and returning down the Atlantic coast and through the capes.

This trip is being talked of and if it is not accepted by the regatta committee it is likely that one equally as long and attractive will be chosen.

An effort will be made by next year to have at least a dozen new boats in the club, all of the same type. This will give equal racing privileges in the annual cruise.

This matter, as well as numerous others, will be discussed at the annual meeting.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

KATY RUMORED MERGER IS NOW CREDITED BY CHICAGO RAILWAY MEN.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

The reported plan for consolidation of the Alton, Clover Leaf, Missouri, Kansas & Texas, Iowa Central and Minneapolis & St. Louis roads appears to many railroad men here to be probable, says a Chicago dispatch. The Alton has now a traffic alliance with the Katy for the southwest, and has no outlet to the northwest.

With the Wabash line between Chicago and St. Louis and connecting with the other Gould lines in St. Louis for the west and southwest, and with a similar situation in regard to the Frisco, the Eastern Illinois and the Rock Island, the Alton can not expect much traffic from either of these groups.

There is, therefore, nothing left for the southwest and northwest but the Katy and the Minneapolis & St. Louis.

Men Needed at Gould Shops.

The Missouri Pacific is opening its shops all over the system, and is in need of a great many men, according to a statement made at Wichita, Kas., Tuesday, by C. F. Cranberry, master mechanic for that road at Fort Scott, Kas.

The resumption of work in the shops will make it necessary to employ boiler makers, machinists and helpers in the shops at Fort Scott, Sedalia and Kansas City.

"We have work for as many men as we can get," declared Mr. Cranberry. "Machinists, boiler makers and blacksmiths are in great demand at all our car repairing and locomotive departments."

To Take Over the Tunnel.

The electrical international tunnel between Sarnia, Ont., and Port Huron, Mich., will be formally taken over by the Grand Trunk railroad tomorrow. Leading railway officials will take part in the accompanying celebration. The tunnel is one of the largest contracts of its kind ever consummated in America.
